1. Online offer content

Altum Management GmbH, hereinafter referred to as Altum, shall in no way be responsible for the topicality, accuracy, completeness or quality of the information provided. Liability claims against Altum relating to damages of a material nature or otherwise, resulting from the use or failure to use any information provided, including incorrect or incomplete information, shall be excluded in principle, unless it can be demonstrated that Altum acted wilfully or was grossly negligent.

All offers shall be subject to confirmation and without obligation. Altum explicitly reserves the right to alter, complete or delete parts of the website or the entire presentation without separate notice and to cease publication temporarily or definitely.

2. References and links

Altum has absolutely no influence on the current and future design and the contents of the linked websites, which were altered after the link was created, and dissociates itself from these contents. This declaration applies to all links and references included within its own website as well as to entries by third parties in guest books, discussion forums and mailing lists set up by Altum. Liability for illegal, incorrect or incomplete content, and in particular for damages arising out of the use or non-use of such information provided shall reside wholly and exclusively with the provider of the referred website, and not with the party which merely makes reference thereto in the form of links.

The copyright for published material created by Altum shall remain with Altum. Any reproduction or use of such graphics, audio files, video clips and texts in other electronic or printed publications without the express consent of Altum is prohibited.

4. Data protection

If there is an option of providing personal or company-related data (e-mail addresses, names, addresses) on this website, disclosure of such data shall be expressly on a voluntary basis by the user. If technically possible and reasonable, all services on offer can be used and paid for without revealing personal data or by entering anonymous
